

AIRR

WHAT AIRR CAN OFFER YOU

PRICE: All customers buy at the SAME price. This allows you to spend time selling better! In the true Aussie Spirit, AIRR are constantly 'taking the punt' on bulk buys so that our customers can buy best.

INCREASE YOUR BOTTOM LINE: Put simply – the more you buy, the greater the return. AIRR's business model is completely transparent; please give us a call to talk about what customer category best suits your business.

CUSTOMER SERVICE: AIRR's prime focus since inception has been to deliver the highest level of customer service to all independent rural retailers, regardless of their size. Our ability to deliver this continues to attract customers to the group and has been fundamental to both our growth and success. Our people love the business. Our customers love the business.

ADMINISTRATION: AIRR provide complete back end administration to customers, which includes invoicing and document handling. You can source product from your nearest AIRR warehouse or direct from the supplier - yet have only one account to administer for all purchases, your AIRR account.

DISTRIBUTION: AIRR have WELL STOCKED warehouses in every mainland Australian state, which means you can get what you need quickly & at the right price. The days of missing sales because your wholesaler hasn't got stock are over.

NATIONAL TRADING ARRANGEMENTS: AIRR have national trading arrangements with 500+ suppliers across many categories, which brings exceptional buying power to our customers. With such a broad range of suppliers, AIRR provide customers with opportunities to increase sales by diversifying into different market segments.

We would welcome the chance to talk to you about how AIRR can grow your business. Please call your nearest AIRR warehouse for more.
